

Reinventing service plans is just one more way we are demonstrating our on-going commitment to our customers.

Since 2006, Simple Energy has been your friendly, local heating oil and propane company. And together we are navigating the energy future with alternative and renewable energy sources.

Our original business plan still applies: Do what you say you're going to do, be competitive and fair, and above all...be worth it. It's that Simple.

Kinson Craft and Rob Stenger, proud founding owner-operators.
